

STUDENT EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

NOW HIRING: MEMBERSHIP ENGAGEMENT COORDINATOR

Background

MUN Students' Union (MUNSU) represents over 13,000 undergraduate students studying through Memorial University of Newfoundland's St. John's campus. MUNSU is a not-for-profit organization that advocates for students through campaigns and lobbying while also providing cost-saving services and student life programming for its members.

Salary: $14.05 per hour (biweekly pay); 40 total hours over the semester

Duration: Hours must be completed during the Fall 2019 semester

Eligibility Requirements

- Must be a MUNSU member registered full-time during the semester (minimum three courses)
- Must not be on a work term
- Must meet university MUCEP academic requirements
(cumulative average of 60% or above, or; average in last 10 courses of 60% or above, or; applying with support through the Blundon Centre – more details on academic requirements found at <https://www.mun.ca/student/student-success/work-experience/MUCEP.php>)

Job Description & Qualifications

Working directly with the Executive Director of External Affairs, Communications, and Research, this role will provide assistance with MUNSU's membership engagement by reaching out to students through tabling, increasing MUNSU's active presence on campus, as well as brainstorming and researching strategies for engaging our 13,000+ undergraduate members.

Due to the nature of this role, the selected candidate will spend time interacting face-to-face with a very large, diverse student body and must be comfortable initiating conversations with students on campus. It is imperative that the hired candidate be able to interact respectfully with all students at all times.

If you have ideas for ways to engage MUNSU's membership, we'd love to hear about them in a cover letter as well as any particular campaigns or issues you'd prefer to focus on in this role.

Here's what we're looking for in an ideal candidate:

- Strong communication, creative, and design/technical skills
- Demonstrated history of accountability and self-direction
- Understanding of intersectionality, structural inequalities, and equity work
- Interest in the MUN Students' Union, the student movement, and/or student issues

To Apply

The MUN Students' Union is an employment equity employer. Applications from all qualified candidates are welcome; in particular, applications are encouraged from racialised people, indigenous people, people with disabilities, queer and trans people, and women.
