Salary: $14.05 per hour – biweekly pay; 40 or 80 total hours over the semester (position can be filled by two students for 40 hours each, or one student for 80 hours)

Duration: Hours must be completed during the Fall 2019 semester

Eligibility Requirements

- Must be a MUNSU member registered full-time during the semester (minimum three courses)
- Must not be on a work term
- Must meet university MUCEP academic requirements
(cumulative average of 60% or above, or; average in last 10 courses of 60% or above, or; applying with support through the Blundon Centre – more details on academic requirements found at <https://www.mun.ca/student/student-success/work-experience/MUCEP.php>)

Job Description & Qualifications

Working directly with the Executive Director of Finance and Services, this role will assist with selecting and marketing products and services at The Attic as well as providing general assistance with marketing for all of MUNSU's services (eg: SafeDrive, Health & Dental Insurance, etc). This may include evaluating product selection and merchandising displays at The Attic, sourcing new products, and creating a marketing strategy to promote retail sales.

The selected candidate should have an interest in retail sales and merchandising, or an interest in product marketing. It will be helpful in this position to have a familiarity with The Attic, MUNSU, and the other services MUNSU provides on campus.

Here's what we're looking for in an ideal candidate:

- Strong communication, creative, and strategic skills
- Experience in retail and/or merchandising
- Experience with, knowledge of, and/or interest in marketing and communications
- Familiarity with MUNSU, the University Centre, and the Memorial community in general
